Welcome Packet

First things First...Check us out at www.therampeffect.com/getting-started

Welcome to Isagenix and more importantly to the most amazing and supportive community you will find! We are so excited for what these products will do for you not only physically, mentally, emotionally, but if you have an interest, financially as well. No matter what your goal is, you are getting ready to embark on an amazing health journey.

We are here to coach you along the way. What exactly does that mean? We are here to support you in any way you choose. Communication is key and if you need help don't ever be afraid to ask! We have learned so much since starting this journey, but we all have opportunities to grow. If there is something we can't answer, we will get the answer for you so we can both learn. We are in this together, and are so happy you are here!

What can you expect? Well, that varies from person to person. We like to keep things real!

Days 1-4, it's possible that you may not feel like this works at all. And that's ok. You may think we are all liars and that it's junk. Keep going. Trust us. Detox is not fun. It can mess with your mind, but this works!

Awesome article regarding Symptoms You Can Expect When You Detox: <http://ow.ly/T6pQL>

By Day 5, your hair is going to look a little shinier than normal. You're going to have this Isa glow going on. You might have a little pep in your step. Oh and those feelings you had the first few days will likely be gone!

By Day 10, you're going to have a mini panic attack because you're through a shake canister, and we know by Day 5 many of us probably would have sold our firstborn to make sure we had Isagenix in our body at all times; we felt that good. And so by Day 10 you may also be panicking because you're thinking, "Ah, this stuff actually works. It's the real deal. I'm going to have it in my life forever."

By Day 14, without even trying, and without even opening your mouth, people are going to start noticing that something is going on with you. The glow, the hair, the happy mood, the possible weight loss. Your coworker/friend/significant other may say, "Whatever is in that stuff, keep taking it."

So by Day 14 people are going to want to know what you're doing – so open up your mouth and share. People that you love are going to want to feel like this. Don't be stingy with it; it's a gift you are giving to people. There are people that need these health solutions. There are people who have dreams that they might want to live out. This box can help with that.

At the end of 30 days, this may not be for you. But it would be safe to say that you're probably going to fall in love with it, and so will the people you love the most. So why not change the people's lives that you love the most and bring them along with you?

Resources at Your Fingertips

There are more resources than you can imagine with Isagenix. Between myself, our overall team, Facebook, and the Internet, you have a multitude of resources at your fingertips. Here are a few that you should familiarize yourself with:

1. www.therampeffect.com *Coming Soon*- Our Personal Wellness Community. Learn how to “Get Started” and check out all of the resources at your fingertips!
2. <https://backoffice.isagenix.com> ---Your personal back office site. When you log in to your back office, this allows you to do many things. This is where you manage your autoships and place wholesale orders. This is where you view your team information. But in addition, there are many resources available for learning. Check it out and explore!
3. Facebook – Upon ordering, I will add you to our product support group. This page is here to give you support, motivation, and information to succeed! If you are interested in the income opportunity, we can discuss adding you to our opportunity page, just let me know! No pressure!
4. isaproduct.com -- This is a one stop product education site where you can learn more about each of the products and systems that isagenix offers This is also where all of the ingredient labels are located
5. isamovie.com --- This is a site that has many videos that you can use to learn yourself and can share with other prospective enrollers
6. isagenixhealth.net --- This site contains all research, articles, and product information at your fingertips.
7. isagenixbusiness.com – Interested in getting your products for free or the income opportunity? This site will walk you through step by step how to create an income while getting healthy! Make sure you reach out to myself as well so I can help you take that first step!
8. isafyi.com – This is a resource where you can find out all announcements and new things happening with Isagenix!

Managing your Customer Account

When you ordered, an account was set up for you. You were emailed your back office website information. You can also access all of your customer account information via the IsaLife App (make sure you have this downloaded) Explore and take a look around!

Your Account Log In: <https://backoffice.isagenix.com>

Username & Password provided by the person who helped you to get started.

In your back office you can do the following:

- Manage your autoships/future orders
- Place additional Wholesale orders in between autoship orders
- Enroll new customers (reach out for help when doing this!)
- Find resources to learn more about Isagenix

About 5-7 days before your first 30 days are up, we will want to get on the phone or on text and discuss how to proceed next month. There are many ways to continue and/or maintain this lifestyle. As a convenience, I help suggest products for the next month for your auto replenishment. Depending on your goals, you can adjust the products to what you need. You can also help set up others with wholesale accounts just like you have so they too can save!

- ✓ I advise waiting at least 5-7 shake days before doing your first cleanse day. This allows your body to get highly alkaline.
- ✓ I advise using an hourly schedule similar to this (change times to make sense for you). I find this is super helpful to people!
- ✓ Suck on the isasnacks. Don't skip them, they are not optional! It helps regulate blood sugar.
- ✓ Friends don't let friends cleanse without Isadelights.
- ✓ Products you can enjoy on cleanse days: Isagenix coffee, isagreens, isafruits, Ionix, eshots, organic teas, one bag of whey thins...ask to learn more!

If you feel your blood sugar drop a bit, you may eat/suck on 1/8 of an organic apple every 20 minutes until you feel better. When cleansing, you really have to listen to your body! Everyone is so different.

Getting Your Products for Free...and Then More.

Aside from feeling amazing, this part is my favorite because it's so easy. If you want to start earning right away even before your package comes, we suggest posting something like this to your Facebook wall or social media sites and insert my results. The best times to post are evening between 7:30-9:30 PM. Then tag me in your status.

"After watching my friend _____ lose ____ lbs and _____ inches in a short amount of time, I've decided I was tired of feeling lethargic, overweight and in pain all the time. I'm getting started on a superfood nutritional cleansing system and I'm looking for friends who will hold me accountable who want to do this with me. Who is up for looking and feeling their best?"

When people respond, USE ME to help you talk to them. This is the beauty of this team. We all help each other out. If you have an interest in the compensation plan and want to know how I'm making major money each WEEK, talk to me. I promise you. We all want our products for free because we won't want to stop this program. And when you start feeling awesome and want to share it with others, it's icing on the cake to get paid at the same time. Think about it. When there is a new restaurant in town, do we go incognito to find out first? No. We want someone to go there with us. The same goes for Isagenix. Find two people who need this whether for weight loss, health reasons, or financial reasons. Do it together. It's so much more fun!
